"Brew Your Own Insulin" and other Consequences of Copyright The Jim Rutt Show with guest Cory Doctorow

The "Brew Your Own Insulin" movement is a symptom of a sick economy that puts science second to corporate profits, says technology correspondent and science fiction author, Cory Doctorow, in a scathing 90-minute podcast with Jim Rutt, one of the earliest Internet techno-enthusiasts.

The interview takes the form of Doctorow's new book, Radicalized, a series of four novellas set in the near future. The podcast explains the events in the world that sparked the characters and events in the book. Topics covered in the wide-ranging interview include:

- => Techno-Utopians vs. Techno-Cassandras
- => "Adversarial Interoperability" and Walled Gardens in Technology
- => Racial Violence and Responsibility
- => The U.S. Healthcare System, Incel and AntiVax
- => Social Collapse, Survivalism and Resilience
